►John Thynne "Esquire" e1502-....

1542

(Prebendary, Wolverhampton Featherstone, Staffs)

- (not known to have been ordained)
- (in office) Mar 1541.2
- (as Esquire, leased the prebend for 21 years to James Leveson of Wolverhampton, Staffs Esquire c1500-1547) 20 Mar 1541.2 [below]

*Your orators Robert Mydelemore esquire, and Margery his wife, Richard Levesonne, Walter Levesone, and Edward Levesone, esquires, executors of the last will of James Levesone [James Leveson of Wolverhampton, Staffs Esquire c1500-1547], deceased.
Whereas John Thynne, esquire, Prebendary of the Prebend of Featherstone, within the Deanery of Wolverhampton, co. Stafford, in consideration of divers sums of money paid to him by James Levesone, by his deed dated 20th March, 33 Henry VIII [1541.2], granted and to farm let to the said James, the said Prebend with all glebelands, tithes, rents, etc., to the said Prebend belonging. To have and to hold for 21 years then next following, paying therefor yearly to the said John Thynne and his successors a certain rent, since the making of which lease the said James made his executrix the said Margery his wife, and the said Richard, Walter and Edward, and died. After whose death they entered into the said glebelands etc., and have taken the profits thereof for 4 years now last past. ... [Court of Star Chamber in SHC
